SECTION – 7 COMPREHENSION

Passage – 1

I was in town and took a ride in a taxi with a friend. When we got out of the cab, my friend said to the driver. "Thank you for the ride. You did a superb job of driving." The taxi driver was stunned for a second. Then he said, "Are you a wise guy or something?" "No, my dear man, and I'm not putting you on. I admire the way you keep your cool in heavy traffic."

"Yeah," the driver said and drove off.

"What was that all about?" I asked.

"I am trying to bring love back," he said. "It's the only thing that can save the city." "How can one man save the city?" "It's not one man; I believe I have made that taxi driver's day. Suppose he has twenty passengers. He's going to be nice to those passengers because someone was nice to him. These passengers in turn will be kinder to their employees or shopkeepers or waiters or even their families. They, in turn will be nicer to the other people. Eventually the goodwill could spread to at least a thousand people. Now that isn't bad, is it?"
